1. The fee will not exceed 1.75%* of assets per year, which represents the total annual fund operating expense after fee waiver and/or expense reimbursement by the advisor. The waiver is in place until 12/31/2024 but may be terminated prior to that date by the fund's board of trustees with 60 days notice.

*exclusive of any acquired fund fees and expenses, interest expense, dividend expenses on short sales, taxes, brokerage commissions, expenses incurred in connection with any merger or reorganization, or extraordinary expenses such as litigation

2. Median market capitalization. Does not include futures.

3. The Fund may not invest 25% or more, except by appreciation, of its total assets in a particular industry or group of industries. A sector is normally composed of many industry groups. Allocation percentages are subject to change at any time, and should not be considered investment advice.

4. One Rock Fund inception is March 6, 2020. Performance for "March" is from March 6 - March 31, 2020, for One Rock Fund, NASDAQ 100 and S&P 500. The Growth of $10,000 chart assumes the Fund's inception date of 3/6/2020 for the indices. The returns shown do not reflect the deduction of taxes that a shareholder would pay on fund distributions or on the redemption of fund shares. Because of ongoing market volatility, fund performance may be subject to substantial short-term changes. Data from Yahoo Finance.

5. NASDAQ 100 is a stock index which includes 100 of the largest domestic and international non-financial companies listed on the Nasdaq Stock Market based on a modified capitalization-weighted index. The S&P 500 is a stock index that measures the performance of 500 large companies based on market capitalization listed on stock exchanges in the United States.
